

Kelly J. Van Fleet, RN, MSN, CPHRM, CPHQ

Kelly attained her initial nursing degree from Des Moines Area Community College, Ankeny, Iowa in 1981. Her BSN and MSN are both from Kaplan University.

Kelly's nursing career has been diverse. Her employment has included nursing roles in Medical-Surgical, Emergency Department, Intensive Care, Cardiac Care, Outpatient Services, Physician Office Management, Nursing Leadership, Education, Quality, Patient Safety, Medical Staff Office, Regulatory Readiness and Risk Management.

Kelly has held multiple specialty certifications in the past to enhance her nursing positions. Those include: Certification in Legal Nurse Consulting, Patient Safety, Basic Cardiac, Advanced Cardiac, and Pediatric Advanced Life Support; Instructor for BCLS & PALS; Instructor for American Red Cross Community CPR & First Aide; Audiology & Optometry Screening Technician; Trauma Nurse Specialist; Nursing Assistant Instructor; Laboratory Manager; Limited Radiology Technician; Project Management; and Design & Build for CERNER Software Products.

She currently maintains certifications in Health Care Quality and Risk Management.

Kelly is currently the Manager of Quality, Infection Control, and Patient Safety at Morris Hospital & Healthcare Centers in Morris, Illinois.